

10 58 96

56
23

Journal of Clinical Pathology

The Journal of the Association of Clinical Pathologists

Vol. 32, No. 3, March 1979

(Top left) Chronic superficial gastritis in antral mucosa. Heavy inflammatory cell infiltrate among gastric pits (P). No marked atrophy of glandular zone (G). Haematoxylin and eosin  $\times 80$ .

(Top right) Adjacent section. No marked alteration in gastrin cell numbers.

Immunofluorescence  $\times 60$ . See Fig. 2a, b, page 203.
(Left) Antral/fundal junction. Normal numbers of gastrin cells in antrum (A) (large arrow). Small arrows show some of the gastrin cells in adjacent fundal mucosa (F). Fundal chief cells (C) stain darkly. Immunoperoxidase  $\times 80$ . See Fig. 5, page 204.