

51
50 5896

READING ROOM

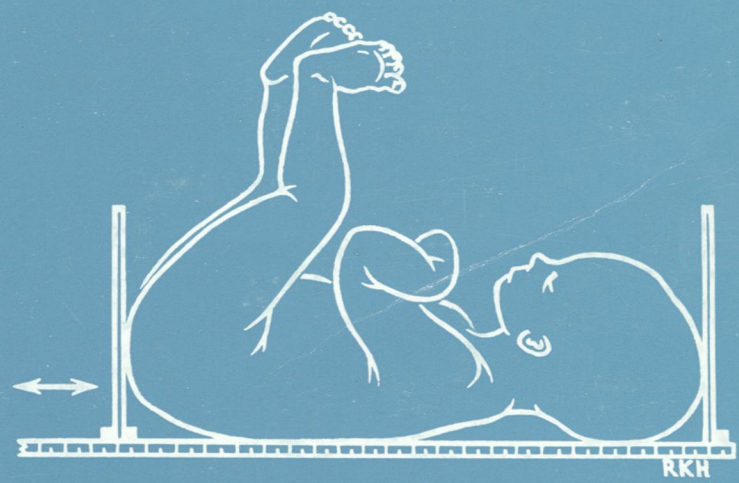

Journal of Clinical Pathology

The Journal of the Association of Clinical Pathologists

Vol. 24, No. 2, March 1971

The crown-heel length is measured by placing the infant on a graduated board. The head end of the board is fixed but the foot end is movable.

Measurement of the crown-rump length (sitting height). See Figs 1 and 2, page 160.